ACADEMY FOR CULTURAL DIPLOMACY

IN 2008, THE INSTITUTE FOR CULTURAL DIPLOMACY LAUNCHED ITS ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT WITHIN THE ICD, KNOWN AS THE ACADEMY FOR CULTURAL DIPLOMACY

The Academy for Cultural Diplomacy serves as the academic department within the Institute for Cultural Diplomacy with the aims of developing and raising awareness of the theory and practice of cultural diplomacy and related fields by governments and non-state intercultural relations and promoting global peace. Areas of particular academic focus of the Academy for Cultural Diplomacy include intercultural relations, global governance and politics, sustainable economies & creative industries, international law & human rights, and culinary innovation & excellence.

Alongside providing the best possible academic resources to the students, the ICD Academy is fostering a very diverse and internationalised environment, with students, professors, and special lecturers from all around the world. Over the past years the Academy for Cultural Diplomacy has welcomed thousands of academics, diplomats and politicians, journalists, young professionals, students and scholars from across the world to its programs. During the same period, a vast number of current and former Heads of State and Ministers, world-renowned academics, champions for global peace and celebrities have contributed to the Academy events as speakers and partners.

| OUR PROGRAMS

institute for cultural diplomacy

The Center for Cultural Diplomacy Studies offers educational and academic programs in partnership with leading universities, enabling students to explore, analyse and experience cultural diplomacy both in theory and in practice. The CCDS focuses on exploring the balancing between hard and soft power, global governance, the process of globalization in an interdependent world, international economics & business, multiculturalism, intercultural dialogue & exchange, human rights, and religion. We research the ability for culturally based initiatives to further mutual understanding and in turn to foster global peace and stability.

The programs offer high levels of leadership and provide students with the skills to shape their future leadership roles while addressing critical issues challenging the world today. The programs provide advanced knowledge and analytical tools for the study and practice of cultural diplomacy and address the potential that it has in shaping international policies and global strategies.

CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

The Center for Cultural Diplomacy Studies developed the Certificate Programs in Cultural Diplomacy in order to offer and provide participants with comprehensive, tailored learning opportunities in a number of related fields.

Each program features lectures, seminars and workshops lead by experts from the fields of international politics, diplomacy, academia, civil society, and the private sector. Certificate Programs offer the opportunity to learn about the innovative field of Cultural Diplomacy over a short period of time, allowing students and professionals with other commitments to participate. The programs offer access to high profile guest lectures, audio-visual content, a large library of reading materials, and professional networking opportunities to promote one's own projects. All participants are awarded an official certificate of attendance upon completion of the program, which provides details of the speakers who took part and the topics discussed. The professional development programs of the CCDS are actively supported by major figures in international politics, academia, the diplomatic community, civil society, and the private sector.

WEEKLONG SEMINARS

The ICD Academy Sessions are week-long programs that explore the role of cultural diplomacy in contemporary international relations.

Each program features lectures, seminars and workshops lead by experts from the fields of international politics, diplomacy, academia, civil society, and the private sector. During their time in Berlin, participants also have the opportunity to take part in cultural and social activities and visit institutions such as the German Foreign Office, the German Parliament, the Berlin City Hall, cultural institutions and Berlin-based embassies. The ICD Institute was established to allow individuals of all academic and professional backgrounds the opportunity to learn more about the subject of cultural diplomacy.

The Academy Session timetables are designed to allow participants the opportunity to discuss salient issues with experts from the field, whilst providing a framework for group discussions amongst each other.

E-LEARNING PROGRAMS

The Center for Cultural Diplomacy Studies has developed the E-Learning Programs in order to offer individuals interested in the field of Cultural Diplomacy and related areas the opportunity to increase their experience in this expanding field.

The E-Learning Programs have been designed to be studied at a distance, giving students the flexibility to study from any location in the world within a structured and supportive framework. The programs are built in a way that allows individuals currently working full time the ability to acquire academic knowledge with maximum flexibility regarding scheduling and learning formats. The programs have been designed in a flexible way to allow students to structure their instruction around their own schedules.

The courses are delivered via an e-Learning platform, designed to help participants meet the course's learning objectives through a self-paced study routine supported by multimedia, required and optional readings, and a wealth of other information adapted specifically to full-time professionals. Students will have access to innovative research and publications in the field and a distinguished and renowned faculty.

(International Event Series; Berlin; February - December, 2017)

Developing Initiatives to build Cultural Bridges between Germany and Russia
(Berlin; May 1st - 31st, 2017)

There is not a single country which has not been touched by Russia's cultural influence which continues to be a meaningful interchange for discussion and celebration between the Russian people and those of other nationalities.

Cultural Diplomacy, the building of bridges through the sharing of art and culture, has never been more vital for Russia and the Global Community. Instead of focusing on stereotypes or popular impressions, Cultural Diplomacy encourages us to meet each other as individuals from different cultures, and by entering into open discussion and exchange of culture, people can create and strengthen mutual understanding and cooperation.

To build stronger bridges with Russian community in Germany, the Institute for Cultural Diplomacy organize a German-Russian Month 2017 in Berlin that brought people together to share knowledge of art, music, literature and other forms of the arts. This event series was another great opportunity to get additional perspective of Russia and to strengthen cultural bridges.

Human Rights and Democracy in Times of Greater Global Insecurity
(Berlin; November 24th - 26th, 2017)

RESEARCH PROJECTS

Cultural Diplomacy Research (CDR) is a program undertaken by the Institute for Cultural Diplomacy consisting of components focused on analyzing and interpreting key challenges facing culture and society in the contemporary era.

As the field continues to grow, further research undertaken on the role and potential of Cultural Diplomacy consequently develops. CDR therefore focuses on expanding the current understanding of Cultural Diplomacy, as well as the methods for which Cultural Diplomacy can be successfully implemented.

CULTURAL DIPLOMACY NEWS

Cultural Diplomacy News is a program undertaken by the ICD Institute for Cultural Diplomacy. CD News is an internet resource for the latest developments in the field of Cultural Diplomacy.

We believe that by providing an informed portal to a diverse and current range of examples of cultural diplomacy, we can increase access to cultural diplomacy, and highlight the potential of this important tool in healing conflicts and strengthening bilateral relations, where traditional diplomacy fails.

BERLIN GLOBAL

Berlin Global is an online news agency that reports on Berlin's culture, politics and economy and examines how cultural diplomacy is practiced and implemented in Berlin. The reporting of this news is sourced from different sectors including governments, the Berlin diplomatic community, the business sector, civil society, academic and research institutions. During the year 2016 Berlin Global has managed to increase both in quality and quantity of the content published on the platform. The change in the editorial policies and the close working relations between the management and the journalists has also been reflected in the increase of traffic and in the number of unique visitors.

HUMAN RIGHTS INITIATIVES

The Inter-Parliamentary Alliance for Human Rights & Global Peace (IPAHP) is committed to the ongoing struggle to ensure basic global human rights standards throughout the world. In pursuit of this goal, the IPAHP has initiated its Human Rights Program, which is composed of projects that are dedicated to the most urgent issues and global challenges of the time. Each of these Human Rights Projects include human rights initiatives on different levels, which are all fully interactive and open to the general public. These Projects are based on the fundamental principles in the UN Charter and major multilateral agreements, aiming to inspire decision-makers to promote the implementation of these principles. As such, the IPAHP is seeking to inspire and engage governments, decision makers and individuals to become advocates and leaders, in order to ensure universal human rights. Besides that, it is also exercising and Implementing cultural diplomacy practices as the main tool in order to support its engagement in promoting human rights standards around the world.

THE HOUSE OF BERLIN CULTURES PROJECT 2014-17 “BRINGING THE BERLIN COMMUNITIES TOGETHER THROUGH EVENTS & MUSIC” (BERLIN; 2014-17)

The House of Berlin Cultures Project 2014-17 was a 3 year old project organized by the Academy for Cultural Diplomacy in Berlin. The primary aim of the House of Berlin Cultures Project 2014-17 was to bring the Berlin communities together through music & events such as concerts, theatre, dance events, parties, performance art, and other forms of cultural activities. In addition, the Academy for Cultural Diplomacy in Berlin invited specific cultural communities in Berlin to come together, rarely have the opportunity to come together in an effort to build very much needed bridges in a City that is getting more and more culturally diverse each day. The organization of this project was possible thanks to the great facilities of the ICD House Building.

THE HOUSE OF BERLIN CULTURES PROJECT 2014-17 “BRINGING THE BERLIN COMMUNITIES TOGETHER THROUGH EVENTS & MUSIC” (BERLIN; 2014-17)

The House of Berlin Cultures Project 2014-17 aimed to promote global dialogue and understanding through the field of culture. Thanks to this Project, different communities of Berlin had the opportunity to show their most characteristic cultural events in order to establish a relationship of exchange and participation towards other cultural communities of Berlin. Concerts, parties, theater, cinema, gastronomy and many more were some of the events that brought Berlin to the world in an attempt to open the Institute for Cultural Diplomacy to a more generalized public.

The Project had the vision to create a meeting point open for everybody in order to raise awareness and approach the different cultures existing in Berlin, and the rest of the world creating a space for dialogue, understanding, and joy.
